

MAR
26

LOCAL ACTION FOR THE CLIMATE

4pm - 6pm - Millers River
Environmental Center, 100 Main
St. Athol, MA

Part I - "The Science and Basics of Climate Change"
by Dr. Nathanael Fortune - Smith College Physics Professor and Member of the Whately Energy Committee

Part II - "What Can We Do in Our Region?"
Highlights from No. Quabbin Projects. Hear about the Portal to the Future, Renewables, Plastic bags, Regional Food, Land & Farms and Town Energy Activities Followed by Q & A.

Sponsored by North Quabbin Energy (www.northquabbinenergy.org) with co-sponsors Athol Bird & Nature Club, Earthlands, No. Quabbin Garlic and Arts Festival, Seeds of Solidarity, Orange Town Energy Committee, Quabbin Harvest & others.